

House Resolution No. 324

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Jeffrey Allen Saul of Troop 99 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on February 3, 2008, at Wesley United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Jeffrey through the billets of Troop Guide, Junior Assistant Scoutmaster, Senior Patrol Leader, and Patrol Leader; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Jeffrey earned him the World Conservation Award, the Arrow of Light, the name Quick Path in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, a Lone Bear Coup, an Orange Dance Coup, and thirty-three merit badges, which are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge that he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Jeffrey applied the knowledge that he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including fall Camporees and numerous sessions at summer camp; and

Whereas, Jeffrey completed an Eagle Project consisting of installing aluminum bleachers for a Parks Department ballfield in his hometown to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait that justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Jeffrey Saul during his twelve-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Jeffrey Allen Saul, son of Jeff and Jeri Saul of Trenton, Missouri.
